

The LWP Board is responsible for ensuring good corporate governance and underwent renewal subsequent to the end of 30 June 2017 year following the appointment of Mr Dan Lanskey as Non Executive Chairman and resignation of Mr Siegfried Konig as Executive Chairman on 24 July 2017.

The new Board, at a number of its meetings, undertook an internal review of the Company's corporate governance practices and procedures and examined and compared these practices to the current best practice principles and recommendations of the ASX Corporate Governance Council.

The new Board also commissioned an independent legal review of aspects of the certain business and investment activities previously undertaken by the Company previously and to confirm compliance with the Corporations Act, ASX Listing Rules or other statutory obligations of the Company in its dealings with any Director or any party associated with or related to the Company.

In consultation with the ASX and other stakeholders, the new Board received a confidential report from independent corporate governance specialists providing a review of the Company's practices, policies, procedures and resources for complying with the ASX Listing Rules.

Both reviews highlighted apparent departures from generally accepted practices, processes and procedures with regards to related party transactions, share issue procedures, share trading and timing of board engagement in decision making and scheduling of board meetings.

The Board renewal process is continuing. Following from the Company's own internal review, receipt of the independent legal review and the report from independent corporate governance specialists, the new Board adopted a new eleven (11) point Corporate Governance Plan on 8 May, 2018.

The new Corporate Governance Plan provides an appropriate framework to support the Board and Company as a whole. The new Corporate Governance Plan summarises written terms of reference for the Company's committees and corporate governance duties, practices and policies. The new Corporate Governance Plan outlines terms of reference for a Board Charter, Corporate Code of Conduct, Audit and Risk committee Charter, Remuneration Committee Charter, Nomination Committee Charter, Disclosure and Performance Evaluation, Continuous Disclosure, Disclosure and Risk Management, Securities Trading Policy, Diversity Policy and Shareholder Communications Strategy. A summary of the new Corporate Governance Plan has been prepared and included in the Corporate Governance section of Company's website at www.lwptech.com.

Furthermore, the Board is cognisant of the findings of each review and on 8 May 2018 established a Corporate Governance Committee.

Corporate Governance Committee	Capacity	Independent	Committee Position
Dan Lanskey	Non-Executive	Yes	Chairman
Andrew Sparke	Non-Executive	No	Member

The Board is mindful that there may be some instances where compliance is not practical due to the Company's current size, the nature of the Board and the magnitude of the Company's operations. A single (or separate) Nomination and Remuneration Committee(s) will be established as the size and nature of the Board and the magnitude of the Company's operations change to accommodate the additional resources required to perform these additional committee roles. Under the Company's Board Charter, the duties that would ordinarily be assigned to individual committees are currently carried out by the full Board under the written terms of reference for those committees.

The 2018 Corporate Governance Statement will disclose the extent to which the Company has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council for the financial year ended 30 June 2018 and will be published at the same time the LWP 2018 Annual Report is released.
